

Khagendra Thapa Magar “World’s Smallest Teen”

- Brought to you by Ripley’s Believe It Or Not!

Khagendra will be visiting New York City and following in the footsteps of Robert Wadlow, the tallest man to have ever lived. In 1937, Robert Ripley invited Wadlow to New York City for a Ripley’s Believe It Or Not! event. As part of Khagendra’s public appearance, he will be visiting the Ripley’s Odditorium in Times Square and “meeting” Wadlow. Khagendra will have the opportunity to walk in Wadlow’s shoes as he visits the Empire State Building, just as his tall counterpart did so many years ago.

Facts About Khagendra

Birthplace:	Baglung District, Nepal
Birthdate:	October 14, 1992
Mother:	Dhana Maya
Father:	Rup Bahadur
Weight:	5 kg (11 lbs.)
Height:	22 inches
Hobbies:	Karate and Dancing
School:	Budhanilkantha School

Khagendra Thapa Magar Foundation

Chairman:	Minbahadur Rana
Objectives:	A charitable foundation designed to financially, medically, and philanthropically support Khagendra Thapa Magar