

Khagendra

VISITS THE BIG APPLE

Tuesday 09/07/2010
World's Smallest Teen to Meet World's Tallest Man
in New York City.

At just 22 inches, Khagendra Thapa Magar, 17, to visit from Nepal to mark his appearance in Ripley's Believe It or Not!'s ENTER IF YOU DARE!

The world's smallest male teen will have his dreams fulfilled with a visit to New York City September 7th & 8th

At just 22 inches tall and 10 lbs in weight, Khagendra ("ka-jen-dra") will be accompanied by his father and the head of the charitable foundation created to support his living and health expenses.

He is here to mark his appearance in the new book Ripley's Believe It or Not! Enter if You Dare! During his stay, he will visit the Empire State Building and Ripley's Odditorium where he will come face-to-shin(?) with a life-sized figure of Robert Wadlow, the world's tallest man ever. Standing 8' 11", Wadlow also visited the Empire State Building in 1937.

Khagendra shares the same interests as others his age and has dreamed of visiting the United States where, he says, "I can show off my dancing moves and how good I am at karate."

TUESDAY, September 7, 2010

10-10:45 a.m.

Photo-Op/Q&A with life-sized figure of world's tallest man ever, Robert Wadlow (at 8' 11") Ripley's Believe it or Not! Times Square
234 West 42nd Street

11-11:15 a.m.

A walk through the heart of Times Square

12 Noon.

Visit to the world-famous 86th floor Observatory, The Empire State Building 350 Fifth Avenue, Fifth Avenue Lobby Information Desk.

1-3 p.m.

Lunch at a famous New York deli; Visit to NYC's largest Buddhist Temple (Media by pre-arrangement only)

MEDIA CONTACTS

Peter Himler

phimler@flatironcomm.com

(m) 516-729-6461

Jill Budik

jbudik@flatironcomm.com

(m) 917-250-7400

Visit www.ripleybooks.com/smallestman for all media & downloads